The Road to Globalization

The Road Away from Globalization

The End of the Great Asset Mania

The Harder They Bail, the Faster They Sink

What's Next?

(2-10 years)

Finance

- The Federal Reserve system will be discredited and finally abolished

Economy

- The unemployment rate in the U.S. and most countries around the world will rise and eventually exceed 25 percent

Politics

- The European Union will fragment and ultimately disappear

Social Trends

- Global warming will be relegated to a sideshow in the spectrum of topical social concerns
